one of the most persistent if vexing issues facing not just theology but also political theory sociology and other disciplines is the ongoing Palestinian Israeli conflict for theology the problem is especially nettlesome on account of the Church's shared history and tradition with Israel Palestinians including Palestinian Christians bear the brunt of suffering and dispossession in the current situation yet are burdened even more by Christian political appropriation of Zionism through an analysis of Palestinian refugee mapping practices for returning to their homeland Alain Epp Weaver takes up the troubled issue of Palestinian dispossession and argues against the political theology embedded in Zionist cartographic practices that refuse and seek to eliminate evidence of co-existence instead Alain Epp Weaver offers a political theology of redrawing the territory compatible with a bi-national vision for a shared Palestinian Israeli future the theological journal is designed to enable our practitioners to capably integrate theological concepts into their practice the articles are written by CCDA members and will challenge us to go deeper theologically while giving us language that will allow us to dialogue outside of the academy theological reflection and engagement among practitioners and with our neighbors can often be strange bedfellows but this should not be the case
